competitions. To President Bland belongs the honor for the position in the first place. He got the idea and stayed with it till the course was an accomplished fact.

Over 50 soldier settlers and 100 of the opportunity men were present to get first-hand information on how to live stock. The way that they questioned and entered into the of the competitions spoke eloquently of their appreciation of the opportunity that had been accorded them.

The first lecture was given by F. A. McEwan, who dealt with symptoms and early treatment of diseases and disorders in horses. The illustrations were very effective and will be invaluable to the boys in experience.

GERMAN OFFICERS SENTENCED

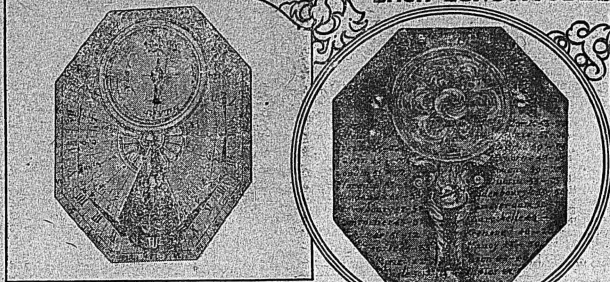

Lepzig, Germany, July 16.—Lieut. Dittmar and Lieut. Boldt, charged with murder in the first degree for firing on lifeboats after the Canadian hospital ship Llandovery Castle had been torpedoed in the summer of 1918, were each sentenced today to four years' imprisonment.

The sentence did not, however, carry hard labor with it, as demanded by the public prosecutor. The case of Dittmar and Boldt differed from the others which had been heard by the supreme court here, in connection with trials growing out of violations of the rules of civilized warfare, inasmuch as the two defendants were brought to trial by the German public prosecutor. Great Britain only had demanded the trial of Commander Patzig of the submarine which torpedoed the Llandovery Castle, which died the country. The public prosecutor, however, after an examination of the evidence, ordered that Dittmar and Boldt be placed on trial.

A UNIQUE COMPASS.

BACK LONGITUDES

THE FACE OF THE DIAL & COMPASS

A silver mounted compass, which is nearly 200 years old and is fitted with a sundial, also longitudes and latitudes of important cities and ports, was presented by a Miss Buckley, a passenger on board the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama, to Mr. E. Cox, the third class steward, as a token of gratitude while on a voyage to Canada.

Mr. Cox states that the Squire of the parish of Weston, Norfolk, presented the compass many years ago to the Rev. Buckley of Weston, who was Miss Buckley's grandfather, and when he died he left it to her. The compass is in a well-preserved green shag case, inside which is the following inscription:—

"This compass and dial was given me by Sir George Osbourne in 1773. It having been Sir Basil Clive's, made at Paris about the year 1771. E. H."

When opened the sun dial and compass is on the face, while on the back of the compass are the longitudes and latitudes.

It was found a very valuable instrument for carrying in the old hunting days.

SMOKER TO FOOTBALLERS

The Firemen were the hosts on Friday evening at a very enjoyable smoker in the City Hall. The event was the expression of a desire on the part of the Firemen to entertain the football players of the city. It was felt that the football series of games that had been pulled out under the City Football League was the most successful that had been held in the city for some time, and that some formal recognition of the fact should be given.

Ald. Broughton acted as chairman in the absence of the Mayor. The program was varied in character, and the numbers met with the enthusiastic approval of the audience. Following is the program:

Song Sergt. Smith
Song H. P. Kenny
Speech Ald. Stone
Song P. B. Kent
Song C. Hamilton
Speech D. Wright
Song C. Anderson

Interlude (Benedictions)

Cornet solo Bandmaster Puley
Song H. P. Kenny
Song Mr. Thompson
Song P. B. Kent
Song Sergt. Smith
Intercom C. Hamilton
Song C. Anderson

The refreshments were all that could be desired—lots of sandwiches, lemonade, ice cream and cake.

The affair closed with a vote of thanks to those who had taken part in the program and the singing of the National Anthem.

The News requests the help of all and sundry in compiling the information asked for in this letter:

Mr. Editor:

Dear Sir: A few lines. Can you tell me how much paper money there is in use, put out by all the Banks in Canada, and also made by Dominion government at the present time, each one separately and how much currency; so that we might know how much money there is to put up against all the labor products of this great country of ours, for there is something wrong some place, for money is too dear, and by that there ain't enough to go around or it takes too much to pay interest. Hoping you give me this information.

Yours truly, E. H.

CITY FINANCES

The city of Red Deer is passing through a period of strenuous financial management. The co-operation of every taxpayer is very necessary. The city is not a great outside corporation whose interests are foreign to the individual interests of its citizens. The city's welfare is wrapped up with the individual prosperity of the taxpayers. Red Deer is surrounded by the great hills. Its waterworks and sewers are in service and will continue to be an asset of the city for the years that are to follow. Her sidewalks and other permanent improvements will be good for years to come. Fortunately some of these debtors payments will soon be a thing of the past; the services will be paid for and will continue as revenue producers.

The banks are insisting that the taxes must be collected. In doing so they are acting in the best interests of the city. Permission for unlimited borrowing would stir up trouble for the future. It is a hard pill to swallow when money is scarce, but the sooner the city's debts are paid, the sooner will the individual properties in the city feel the trend of ascending values. Every citizen who makes the supreme effort and pays his taxes promptly will do his share in putting the city on Easy Street, providing school facilities for the children, and in making his own investment more remunerative. Help yourself by helping the city now.

THE RED DEER FAIR

The Red Deer Fair for 1921 has passed into history as the best Fair in many ways that have ever been held in this city. The Agricultural Society deserves the thanks of the citizens for the progress that has been made during these years of effort. It is very fitting that the tenth Fair has been the most successful of all the Fairs that the Society has held. Facing difficulties that have seemed almost insurmountable at times, the Directors have gone on with a determination that has been admirable.

It is a thankless job, running a Fair. There are usually many more who are willing to find fault than there are volunteers to put the thing over as it should be done. Scarcely a day or a yard of bunting was to be seen anywhere. There is a tendency to be so very matter of fact that we are in danger of losing our civic pride. It will do us all good to get out and meet a little for the town, and there is no better place to start than on the Red Deer Fair.

HEALTH AND WEALTH

Now that the election is over, and the Municipal Campaign has settled back into regular channels, discussion of the merits of the proposed scheme is in order. In this very practical age, people are looking for dividends. The dollar is analyzed more closely now than it has been in recent years, but long term investments are more popular than they were in days of easy accumulation.

What is wealth? It is a comparative term. The man with one thousand dollars is wealthy compared with

AFTER WATCHING GREAT MEN

"A Looker-on" in the New York World.

The effect of living in Washington and associating with the great is either to make one cynical or a cynical philosopher. It is inevitable. After watching the so-called big men, you come to the conclusion that they are not as big as they are believed to be; that they are not much better than the average man; that most of them are largely stuffed with cotton, but have good press agents; and then you become cynical. But if you take the game for what it is worth, you manage to retain your philosophy, even though you may become somewhat discouraged and wonder whether there is any limit to the credulity of that patient as the public.

The purchaser will be allowed until the 1st of May, 1922, to cut and remove the timber. Only such timber within the area described as is designated for removal will be allowed to be cut, and all timber so designated must be cut and removed from the sale area. The brush and other debris resulting from the operations must be lopped, piled, and burned in accordance with the instructions, and to the satisfaction of the Forest Officer.

Each bidder will be required to deposit with the officer conducting the sale the sum of $100.00 in cash or bank draft or accepted cheque, made payable to the Deputy Minister of the Interior before being allowed to bid at the sale. The sale will be awarded on the basis of the amount offered per thousand lineal feet for the mining timber on the sale area. The Department does not bind itself to accept the highest or any bid. The deposits of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them at the close of the sale, while that of the successful bidder will be retained as a guarantee deposit to be forfeited in case of failure to comply with the conditions of the sale or the Forest Reserves Regulations.

THE RED DEER FAIR

CLOSED STRONG IN EXHIBITS BUT WEAKER IN ATTENDANCE

Wednesday was the closing day of the 1921 Red Deer Fair. The weather man continued to smile on the day, leaving nothing to be desired except a larger attendance. The receipts for the entire Fair, including grand stand receipts, were approximately $120,000 less than they have been during the past two years. This is attributed to the fact that people do not have the money to spend this year. The exhibits were excellent, and kept the judges guessing a good deal of the time. The stock parade in front of the grandstand never showed to such good advantage as it did this year. While no returns are available yet as to the amount of money that was awarded in prizes, it is safe to say that it will be much larger than in recent years. The classes were filled much better than heretofore.

Following is a list of the judges who officiated in the various departments of the Fair:

Stock Reducing Pre-Inventory Sale

Present manufacturing costs do not warrant these price reductions to such an extent, but this store blazes the way, contributing even more than its share to re-establishing conditions on what may be regarded as a normal basis, and the special prices on this occasion serve the dual purpose of establishing a lower price level on staples required every day, and of reducing our stock in the inventory which we make at the end of this month.

Distributing Immigrants

Settlers in Canada

A family group of settlers in Canada.

Two thousand immigrants have arrived in a single day at the port of Quebec. They have landed from three Canadian Pacific Ocean Liners; they have been inspected, examined and docketed by officials and inspectors—governmental and railway—their foreign money has been exchanged for Canadian currency, what remains is the process of distribution and assimilation.

Two thousand crowd the Government Immigration Hall, waiting to make another leg of their long journey. They have come from Everywhere and are going to Everywhere. The map of Europe and of the British Isles are represented in this mass of humanity—sturdy Scandinavians from Northern Europe, dairy workers from Denmark, Poles by the group and family, fleeing from their war-torn country; all the little Lands created by the League of Nations have contributed their sons, as all the Central European countries in Ukrainian, Ruthenian, Czech, Slovak, and Russian. Switzerland and Italy are also represented in the composite crowd, all making a human inflow of a day that illustrates the mixture of races in this land of promise.

Another shipload follows those of the Corsican and Tunisian. The Malta brings an exclusively British army of immigrants, the latter covering the British Isles as the foreigners do Europe, while all the way from John O'Groats to the Land's End is heard from.

The Government is through with them and the Canadian Pacific Railway practically takes charge. Both units in directing the big crowds to their respective trains. Long lines of cars—tourist colonist and coaches—parallel the Hall, each clean and well-painted locomotive are ready for their task. A large staff of officials and train men are on their job, keeping their heads as well as their tempers under strong temptation to lose both. Some of the newcomers are nervous and frightened, some are excited and fussy, and some are 'feckless' in the word of a Scotch observer. Perhaps we would be, too, if we were in their place, a long way from home and not quite sure of tomorrow.

Carefully and cleverly the passengers are stowed away—the westward-bound in trains that will head direct for Winnipeg and all beyond to the going down of the sun; the Ontario ones are in trains billed to Toronto, for redistribution from that centre. Families are given cars to themselves, women, folks are treated the same, and the single men have other cars to themselves, flocking together like birds of a feather.

The women-filled cars are in charge of trained Government "conductresses" who render a sympathetic service in a hundred ways that only travelling women and girls can appreciate, especially where babies are present, as they are most numerous. Thus train after train is filled, but not more than to capacity, and started—a new experience in a new land for a majority of them, and as Quebec city is circled, and the old Province is entered, the largest in all Canada, passing the quaint farmsteads of the habitants, all eyes are centred on the landscape and the New World.—F. Y.

DEVELOPING PULLETS

(Experimental Farms Note)

For the greatest ultimate success in egg production, pullets, from the time they are hatched, should be so handled that they will not receive any shock. From "shock" laying pullets should be one period of continuous growth.

A pullet that is started at some stage in its development is a pullet that is ruined so far as heavy continuous production is concerned.

Hen Hatched Chicks: The big danger to hen-hatched chicks is vermin. That "old" hens and chicks are in before the eggs hatch, and then, at regular intervals, treat the chicks with a good disinfectant.

Most of the commercial powders will be satisfactory. Ordinary road dust with a little flowers of sulphur added will serve the purpose.

Incubator Hatched Chicks: The period when artificial heat is removed is one when the chicks require close attention; otherwise they are liable to crowd and very little of this will give the chicks a serious set back.

Put wire netting across the corners of the house so that the chicks cannot crowd into them, and trample each other to death. Visit the house several times in the evening, and if there is any crowding drive the chicks to the centre of the house and stay with them until they settle down. The sooner the chicks can be induced to roost the better.

During the hot summer weather, be ever on the watch for vermin. Spray the house occasionally with a good disinfectant, and if there are any traces of red mites, keep right after them, as it is good to keep the house free of vermin.

Healthiness in the chickens if these pests ever get headway.

Feeding: Feeding, as possible, get the pullets on to good fresh range. Hopper feeding will be better than the old-fashioned method of grain and a good dry mash before them where they can have free access to the feed.

Get the pullets into winter quarters before they start to lay, so that they do not receive any set back. On housing them, bear in mind the change in conditions. Induce them to consume large quantities of feed and to exercise for all the scratch feed.

GENERAL ELECTION THIS FALL IS DOHERTY'S HINT TO QUEBEC

Quebec, July 22.—The Quebec Telegraph today published the following: "A quiet but well defined political activity is making its appearance in the city following the hint conveyed by Hon. C. F. Doherty, minister of justice, to local Conservative workers that the general elections would be likely held this fall. This activity is not confined alone to Unionist campaigners, but has also spread among the Liberal ranks. For the last two weeks special emissaries of the Conservatives have been scurrying for 'missions' and 'missions' of committee meetings have been held to formulate campaign plans."

RED CROSS IS ACTIVE

As the Red Cross develops its organization throughout Alberta and organizes further units in the local centres, it becomes increasingly evident that the need of such preparation is very real. The headquarters of the Alberta Branch is in the Oshawa Block, Calgary, is daily in receipt of inquiries and requests for help. In the districts where rain did not come in time to save the crop, these requests are very numerous.

The Red Cross is meeting this demand with their organized efficiency. In most cases, in fact wherever possible, they are getting their local units to investigate and report on relief applications. This is working out well and brings a systematic feeling between the units and the parent organization.

Next week, Dr. James W. Robertson, C.M.G., chairman of the National Red Cross in Toronto, will visit Calgary and Edmonton. He is looking over the Red Cross work in Western Canada to his mission in connection with the Boy Scouts, and come to Alberta after spending some time in British Columbia.

Mrs. Waagen, Vice President and Honorary Secretary of the Provincial Branch, returned to Calgary recently after attending the conference on employment which was called by the government. She comes back with refreshing news of the activities of the units in the north of the Province, especially at Fort Saskatchewan, where there are 800 members.

HORN HILL ANNUAL PICNIC

The Horn Hill annual picnic, held July 15th, on the old grounds, upheld its reputation as a decided success. A good list of sports was run off consisting of races, basketball and baseball. The basketball game resulted in a victory for the Horn Hill girls by 14 to 6 over Willowdale girls. An exciting game of baseball followed. Horn Hill defeating Fenhold 9 to 14. This game was more interesting owing to the fact that it was the play-off of the tie at Fenhold picnic. After a splendid supper served by the Horn Hill ladies, a pickup team consisting mostly of Willowdale players defeated Horn Hill ball team 14 to 6.

THE ALBERTA LANDSLIDE

(Winnipeg Tribune) The agrarian movement has captured Alberta with a sweeping victory. The Farmers have a clear majority in the legislature and will determine the policy and control the administration of Alberta with none to say them nay.

They are ranged in uncompromising hostility to the Liberal party, and in Alberta at least, have put an end to both old parties without discrimination.

In Manitoba and Saskatchewan the determination of the executives of the United Farmers to restrict their participation in politics to the political field, and their tacit understanding with the Norris government in the me and open alliance with the Martin government in the other, led to what might be termed, a leaderless revolt against themselves which has confused the politics of both provinces.

Just what the reaction of the Alberta, thunderclap will be upon the provincial situation in Manitoba and Saskatchewan is very hard to say. It must strengthen the agrarian movement, but it must disconcert those who persist in regarding that movement as a natural ally of the old Liberal party.

That the farmers cannot give Alberta good government because they are not experienced professional politicians is the rank and utter nonsense. Far more than the promulgation of new political ideas, the result is the professional politician against the professional politician.

Against him there has been a general popular uprising of all the people, which the organized farmers have taken the lead because they were organized, and are in thorough sympathy with the popular dissatisfaction.

That the farmers must give Alberta good government because of some heaven-sent endowment is an equally false assumption. Their danger is the danger of all new departures, that of rash experiment and failure to visualize the actual end when they make a beginning based upon attractive theory. Like everybody else, the farmers of Alberta will depend on honesty of purpose to give a good account of themselves. The effectual discouragement of the crank and the grater in its own ranks, is far more the secret of practical success in any political organization than the propaganda of any intellectual panacea or emotional salvo for human ills.

On the whole the outlook for Alberta is auspicious. The new government is untired, it is true, but there is no adequate reason for supposing that it will be found wanting, and it was time that a spontaneous expression of the people's will should give to the province provincial identity and substance as well as the mere form and name of a province in the Dominion of Canada.

The election is the natural expression of Alberta's growth. Ducks and swans will take to the water, and no old mother hen on the bank can stop them.
